

Things to Do Today

Start your day with the INVOCATION
(Watch, Listen OR Read it to yourself)

Today I invite the Divine Wisdom to fill my heart and my mind with light energy and intuitive power.

I am open to miracles. I am ready to follow the Angelic Guidance. Whatever comes my way is a blessing.

I am open to receive it.

I will pay attention. I will clear my mind and my body of old karmic energy, limiting beliefs, worries, and fears.

I am connected to my Higher Self, Angels, and Spirit Teachers. I am a channel of powerful psychic insights and visions.

I am protected and energized by the Divine Grace of my Spirit.

Amen

Today's Prosperity Wisdom

FORGIVENESS.

I love Wayne Dyer's saying: "Nobody dies from a snake bite". What kills a person is the poison that circulates in their system over time. First, to forgive does NOT mean to become unconscious of your past experiences. It's a healing and clearing miracle. Yes, it's a miracle, which happens when you let go of painful emotions within you and release serious blocks to your own joy, happiness, health, and abundance. In order to forgive you need GRACE. Grace is a Divine force of nature that can instantly transmute fear into love. A touch of grace heals instantly. It fills you up with incredible gratitude and vibrancy. When Grace comes upon you, it dissolves resistance. Forgiveness happens naturally, and you will return back to love, which is your natural state of being. Here is the prayer you can say to help you forgive "Oh Divine Grace, come upon me. I want to heal from my past, and I can't do it alone. I need a miracle! I need your magical touch to set my soul free forever from the poison of unforgiveness". Your feeling of lightness and peace is a sign of Grace working in your body.
